THE MERRY BACHELORS' HOP.

Owing to the rain Thursday night, there were not as many dancers as usually honor the Merry Bachelors with their presence, but the Opera House was comfortably filled and the couples enjoyed themselves more than they could with a larger number on the floor. The music was a splendid feature. Gus Seibert's band, with W. G. Carroll fingering the cornet, fairly outdid itself, and was a treat in itself. Appreciation was evinced in frequent applause and several encores. The changes that a few years make is strongly shown in these annual recurring entertainments. The belles and beaux marry off and give up the fun and new couples take their places till an old stager feels almost lost in the sea of fresh, new faces, which each event brings out. It is safe to say that not five couples present Thursday night were with the happy throng who gathered to worship Terpsichore in the same building as many years ago. But just as pretty, just as gallant and just as gay a set was on hand enjoying the golden moments and getting all the good of life while youth and beauty waits upon them. In a few years they too will go the way of their predecessors and a new crowd will constitute club and guests. Following is a list of the beauties and their costumes:

Miss Eva White, Man-hester, blue satin, lace overdress.

Miss Pattie Tribble, Junction City, old rose, black lace trimmings; diamonds.

Miss Emma Sautley, Laramie, Wyoming, dotted muli, lace trimmings; diamonds.

LOUISVILLE.

Miss Mattie Hudson, black lace; diamonds.

Miss Leila Hudson, figured shalloy; diamonds.

Miss Laura Ellis, black silk, lace overdress; diamonds.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Miss Jean Buchanan, black lace; diamonds.

Miss Irene Dillon, heliotrope satin, pink trimmings; diamonds.

Miss Maggie Buchanan, blue satin, grenadine trimmings; amber.

RICHMOND.

Miss Jane Patterson, heliotrope silk, embroidered.

Miss Mollie Fife, gold satin, black trimmings; diamonds.

Miss Annie White, heliotrope nun's veiling, black trimmings.

LANCASTER.

Miss Georgie Moore, white cashmere, pink trimmings.

Miss Honeywood Huffman, black silk, white trimmings; diamonds.

Mrs. Howard Rice, blue satin, hand-painted front and trimmings; diamonds.

Miss Altie Marksburg, green silk, Kate Greenaway dress, cream trimmings; diamonds.

DANVILLE.

Miss Dimpie Cecil, white embroidered muli; diamonds.

Miss Sadie Cecil, white serge, green trimmings; diamonds.

STANFORD.

Miss Alpha Tyree, white nun's veiling.

Mrs. W. B. Penny, shalloy, blue trimmings.

Mrs. J. S. Hundley, shalloy, black trimmings.

Miss Mary Bright, white cashmere; flowers.

Miss Mary Alcorn, embroidered shalloy; diamonds.

Miss Gertrude Grady, white muli, lace trimmings.

Miss Bessie Reid, cream silk, natural flowers; gold.

Miss Fannie Pennington, white Swiss, daisy trimmings.

Miss Kate Hall, old rose Henrietta, tinsel trimmings.

Miss Annie Shanks, white silk, fish-net overdress; diamonds.

Miss Bessie Richards, white cashmere, ribbon trimmings; flowers.

Miss Bessie Engleman, white silk, gauze overdress; diamonds.

Miss Ella Shanks, pink silk, decollete, fish-net overdress; diamonds.

Miss Maggie Swinebroad, white cashmere, giump trimmings; flowers.

Miss Annie Alcorn, white nun's veiling, black trimmings; diamonds.

Miss May Helm, lilac silk, black trimmings; pearls and natural flowers.

Mrs. G. C. Keller, Jr., black silk, fish-net overdress, orange trimmings; rubies.

There were a number of young ladies from a distance who requested that their names should be withheld and as we are here to please the children it is done.

Besides a large number of our home boys there were from Danville Messrs. Givens, Fisher, McRoberts, Hann, Fox, Robinson, Marrs, Mills, Sanford, Keller, Batterton, Bowman, McKee, Price.

Shack Huffman, Hustonville; John Beeler, Louisville, L. H. Wilson, Lebanon.

Richmond.—Wash, Taliaferro, Phelps, Campbell.

Lancaster.—Rice, Currey, Doty, Farra, Frank, Fox, McRoberts, Cook, Jake and Fleece Robinson.

In brilliant garb of many hues,
The Harborsburg girls bedeck'd'em,
They now put on their beads shoes,
And wear their dresses to show'em.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION

Nominate Eld. J. Q. Montgomery For the Legislature.

It took three bells to call the faithful together Saturday and it was 2:30 before Chairman Neal rapped for order and declared the object of the meeting to be to nominate a prohibition candidate for the legislature. Without the usual formality of electing a permanent chairman of the body, Mr. Neal called for nominations for secretary. Mr. C. E. Powell was named and chosen for the position and on motion of Mr. Hackley a committee on resolutions was appointed by the chair, consisting of Eld. Jos. Ballou, J. T. Hackley, A. W. Carpenter and Daniel Stagg, Sr. The latter said that while he was in sympathy with the cause, he was a citizen of Casey and therefore ineligible for the duty. Charles McRoberts was substituted and the committee retired.

Pending its return calls were made on several persons for speeches, including Secretary Powell, who responded in a well-delivered address, which was evident not ex tempore. When he concluded a man named Bradshaw volunteered to make a speech, which he did in a weak voice and rambling manner. After a long and tedious delay the committee through Bro. Ballou reported as follows:

Resolved, 1. That we favor the old democratic-republican principle in government that secures the greatest good to the greatest number of people. This principle is the embodiment of prohibition.

2. That the voice of a majority of the people lawfully expressed is the only true mode of determining what the law shall be. This embodies the great and priceless principle of self government.

3. The prohibition law of this county was thus created by a majority of over 200 after full discussion, and the expenditure of a large corruption fund in the effort to defeat it.

4. This law has been of incalculable good to this county morally and materially and if not fully enforced no one will charge this failure to the prohibitionists.

5. When this is the only issue brought before the people we cannot co-operate nor vote for any more nor with any party failing to declare in favor of absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic.

The resolutions were adopted and Dr. Bourne moved that that they be printed in numerous papers, to which Bro. Ballou added the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Nominations for a candidate then being in order, J. T. O'Hair arose and gave a pretty fair speech, in which he gave Lawyer Davison dead away, reference to which is made elsewhere, nominated Eld. J. Q. Montgomery. Bro. Ballou seconded the nomination and the chair put the question by a rising vote. About 25 stood up and none standing on the negative proposition, the nomination was declared unanimous.

Bro. Montgomery was then called for and responded, accepting the nomination and promising to carry the banner of the party with honor to himself and credit to it. Of course some of his friends would object to his entering politics, but he was used to objections. When he grew up a gawky boy and had saved enough money to send himself to school, there were those who said he had better stick to the plow handles. When he determined to preach it was said he would be more of a success as an ox-cart driver and now the same class of people would make such remarks about his candidacy, but he was used to that kind of thing and he didn't propose to be deterred by it. He referred to a prediction made by himself in the Court-House in 1887, which was to the effect that prohibition would never carry again in an important election and for verification referred to the results in Texas, Tennessee, Massachusetts, Atlanta and so on. He attributed this to the formation of the American Protective Union and the all-pervading power of the rum interest, and declared but for it Harrison would never have been chosen president. He said that the old charge that the prohibitionists were acting in the interest of either of the old parties was too old and thin to work this time. They had cut loose from them and would henceforth act as a separate and distinct party. He was not prepared to make a full speech, but promised to be ready by county court day to give evidence of the faith within him.

At the conclusion of his talk there were several motions to adjourn, but the chair failed to hear them and recognized Bro. O'Hair, who came forward with a $5 bill in his hand, which he laid down and asked the supporters of the cause to cover to meet necessary expenses and to secure the services of Mrs. Nick. The situation to some of the brethren was now getting very unpleasant, but Bro. Peter Carter got out of it by renewing the motion to adjourn, which was put and carried with a will.

So Bro. O'Hair's $5, which the secretary promptly closed his fist upon, was the only money put up for the "go-forious cause." The average prohibitionists is averse to using money in elections, if the money has to come out of his own pocketbook, and thus ended the first chapter.

The Japanese government has engaged two German lawyers in Berlin to proceed to Tokyo and reframe the Japanese penal code to conform to the German instead of the French code, as now.

HUSTONVILLE.

—We have prospects for rain in the near future.

—Teachers, don't forget the County Institute at Stanford, July 23-28. First examination for teachers, Stanford, July 5th.

—Not much to report as to society matters. Miss Eva Parish, Mr. Isaac Parish and Mrs. Lumpkin, of Owensboro, have been for several days making a pleasant visit at Mr. J. B. McKinney's. Mr. J. T. Craig and wife and Mr. J. W. Hayden and wife, of Stanford, were making glad their numerous friends here on Sunday. Miss Julia Peyton also was here reviving memories.

Our town has been on the qui vive for several days trying to unravel several mysteries. T. P. Nall has been charged for some time with contemplating seriously the commission of an act of matrimony. One day last week Tom flashed on the scene in a new rig, with horse and buggy complete and left without explanation. In a few days he returned, apparently alone, and is reticent about his trip. The next breeze was created by the advent of a mysterious looking stranger, hailing from California, who after prospecting a while divulged that he had received pointers from a man in the West by which a rich deposit of silver ore could be found, near this place, which was utilized many years ago by his informant (in a quiet way.) His instructions were so minute that he had no difficulty in locating the find and he is now negotiating for permission to work the land. Unfortunately we have some survivors who remember the furor excited by the Indian legend of a silver mine at Cumberland Falls, and many of our capitalists would rather be caught with "bricks in their hats" than run the article of commerce known (and sometimes purchased) as a "silver brick," still we can't see why we are not as worthy of a first-class assortment of minerals as anybody else.

CRAB ORCHARD

—Beautiful sunshine! How long will you remain with us? One star-lit night and Sunday dawned with all the gorgeous splendor of a clear sunrise!

—The officials of Garrard county attended the picnic at Dripping Springs Saturday and a jollier crowd has not been about for many a day.

—The Springs opened for the season Saturday, 15th, but the continued rain will delay the opening ball till July 4th, when they will give their first ball, I understand.

—The Sunday-schools and Good Templars had a beautiful picnic at Gum Sulphur Saturday and the only thing to mar the pleasure was the repeated showers of the morning, but it cleared up in the afternoon and their pleasant faces indicated they had a good time. Several of our young people attended. Prof. Bash is getting up a dancing class.

—Col. Archibald Cooper arrived here Friday and is the guest of Dr. J. S. Cooper. The old Mexican veteran is getting along in years, but the flash of the eye still shows the warrior. As we think of those days of the glorious Taylor marching thro' bloody fields of Mexico, we can hear the echo yet of the cannon through the wild hills of that southern country; the echo through the hearts of the living heroes from the graves of the dead.

—J. P. Chandler, the Cicero of Sugar Grove and chairman of the late democratic precinct meeting, is booming the new town, near Cumberland Gap, and will go there in a few days with a company of bargain seekers to inspect the location. It promises to develop into a considerable mineral town, with its enormous deposits of iron and coal in the vicinity and the great tunnel as the gateway South, through which several railroads will pass. Mr. J. S. Russell, of Eureka Light Manufacturing Co., Louisville, after placing the gas machine at the Springs in tip-top order, left Friday for home.

—Eighty blooded horses at Winona, Pa., sold at an aggregate of $43,000. Empire Wilkes was bought by a Kentucky party for $8,000.

—The California Stables so far are not showing to the front, as in the last two or three years. The impression has prevailed that the climate enabled them to develop superior horses, but our last winter, a mild one, was more favorable than usual for training and the horses in this State and Tennessee have been running right away from the Californians, which will doubtless take some of the conceit out of them.

—Valuable is hopelessly broken down. Mr. Harper had recently sold her running qualities to John Campbell for $4,000. She is the mare Mr. Harper proposed to lower Ten Broeck's mile record with, and all who saw her fast work at Lexington, while in good form, just prior to the races there, are thoroughly satisfied she could have done it. Mr. Harper is reported as having tendered to Mr. Campbell the running qualities of Annie Blackburn to compensate in some measure for his (Campbell's) loss. Mr. Harper has never been accused of any generosity before, and until it is known positively to be true, the statement will be doubted.

GREAT CUT-RATE SALE

THIS WEEK AT THE

LOUISVILLE STORE!

The greatest aid in shopping is to find the House which keeps the best, latest, greatest variety and asks the lowest prices. And that can be easily ascertained by visiting the Louisville Store this week.

We have gone carefully through our stock in each department and reduced every article in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Matting, Oil-Cloths, Trunks, &c.

Look at our few cut-rate prices in Clothing: Men's Suits which were sold at $5, $5.50 and $6 will be sold for $4 this week; Men's Suits which were sold at $7, $7.50 and $8 will be sold for $6. This lot is all wool. All-wool Worsteds and Cheviot Men's Suits which were sold at ten, twelve and fourteen dollars will go this week for eight dollars; and all our tailor-made Suits will be sold correspondingly low. All Children's Suits which were sold at $2 and $2.50 will be sold this week for $1.25; all-wool Children's Suits which were sold at three to five dollars will be sold this week at two dollars and a half. Remember these figures are only good for this week and do not purchase until you have seen our stock and learned our prices.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mr. George Johnson and Mrs. Nanie James were married in the east end of the county Friday.

—Miss Mary, sister of Mr. H. A. Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, will be married at his home on the 21st to W. H. Marriott, Esq., of Montgomery, Md., her former home.

—Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. John Bash, U. S. Deputy Marshal, of this place, and Miss Mattie B. Cox, of Louisville. The marriage will take place in that city on the 20th.—Somerset Republican.

—We did not learn till a day or two ago that Miss Edith Morgan, the handsome and well-known school teacher, had eloped with and married Mr. Howard Baker, who has gone into the mercantile business at Chattanooga.

—Mr. McCalla Fitzgerald and Miss Poca, daughter of R. L. Ewell, Esq., of London, were married in Knoxville last week. Miss Ewell is spoken of as very beautiful and is the same who suggested to our business manager that she was a "pig of the little red hog."

—The Cumberland Valley News says that V. L. Jackson and Miss Jennie Moore parted shortly after their marriage in 1878 and had had no communication since till last week, when they met and the old love brightening into a flame, a reconciliation was effected and they are now as happy as the veritable turtle doves.

YOUR ATTENTION, PLEASE, JUDGE.—Judge Boyd, of the mountain circuit, has caused the indictment of the Stanford Interior Journal for criminal libel. There is not a paper in the State more fairly honorable and courageously conducted than the INTERIOR JOURNAL. Had it done Judge Boyd an injury, it would have made haste to repair it; if it has merely told the truth on him, it will be much worse for the judge to press the matter. At any rate, it is an unfortunate state of affairs when a newspaper cannot criticize a judge's official action without laying itself liable to peremptory indictment.—Glasgow Times.

THE race between George E. Stone and Col. Silas Adams for the legislature in Casey and Russell promises to be a notable one, as both are men of talent and brains. We are confident that our man will more than hold up his end of the poke and come out victorious in the end.

In looking over the field for gubernatorial timber one need not cast his optics any further than Danville. Judge M. J. Durham resides there and he would make a most excellent executive.—Columbia Spectator.

W. P. WALTON.

We announce to our readers with unbounded satisfaction that the prohibition and woman suffrage party of Lincoln county has come over solidly to the democracy, and must, if any regard is had for consistency, support Mr. R. C. Warren for the legislature at the August election.

The platform adopted by the new political party at its convention of last Saturday, which is published elsewhere in full, was the result of the best and maturest thought of their most gifted leaders, whom we take it to be Elders Montgomery and Ballou of the clergy and Brothers Charles McRoberts and Clark Cash of the laity. The second resolution, which is the central and most carefully elaborated one of the platform, is as follows:

"The voice of a majority of the people lawfully expressed is the only true mode of determining what the law shall be. This embodies the great and priceless principle of self-government."

This is the exact position now held by Mr. Warren, and always held by the democratic party. Thomas Jefferson could hardly have expressed this ancient tenet of democratic faith more clearly or tersely or vigorously. Such an unqualified and handsome endorsement of our party and candidate was really not expected, and this is why we rejoice!

We know that there are short-sighted persons who affect to believe that the resolution in question was intended to mean this: That the voice of a majority lawfully expressed is the only true mode of determining what the law shall be for all time to come. But it is absurd to suppose that our convention could possibly have meant that. Once upon a time "the voice of a majority" of the French people, lawfully expressed, abolished religion and turned the preachers out to grass. Would Elders Ballou and Montgomery hold that the "determination" of the question should never have been revised? Once too, the same voice of our English-speaking ancestors burned sundry and certain foolish old women as witches? Could the more elderly members of this Saturday meeting be imagined as viewing without alarm the existence and irrevocability of such a law as this? But the other day the great States of Texas, Tennessee and Massachusetts, "by the voice of a majority of their people lawfully expressed" determined that prohibition must go and the "saloon" should stay. Does the new party admit that this settles the question forever in those States? Had the prohibitory law of Lincoln county been defeated in 1886 by "a voice of the majority" would our prohibition friends have considered that determination of the question to have been too sacred ever to be questioned or opened again? Come, it isn't treating these as a fious and good men with courtesy to suppose that their resolution involved any such absurdity.

Another set of critics, equally mistaken, we think, construe something like this to have been the meaning of the convention: When we say the "voice of the people" we mean only the voice of our party. We alone are virtuous and infallible. All other persons who are rash enough to differ from us in opinion are outside barbarians, unenlightened Gentiles, "whisky men," in short, and hoodlums, who don't count. What our "voice" has once proclaimed to be right shall be forever sacrosanct, and a law unto the ungodly, whether they like it or not. Now this, we protest, won't begin to do. It is the same as saying of the new party that it is composed of narrow-minded, intolerant, self-righteous and self-seeking bigots. It is imputing to them the spirit, now believed to be entirely extinct, which in the first century said aloud in the public places "I am holier than thou," and which in later ages invented the thumb-screw and rack and clothed the christian martyrs with robes of fire. No, a thousand times! The broad and enlightened statesmanship of that convention harbored no such spirit or thought as this; and we hasten with enthusiasm to defend it against so injurious an interpretation.

What then does resolution No. 2 mean? Clearly and unmistakably it can have but one other meaning, and that lies on the surface. It means that the people are sovereign, that of necessity a majority must rule, and that the voice of that majority, lawfully expressed at any time, is the law. It means that the people of yesterday or of the last generation shall not fix an irrevocable law, whether it be good or bad, upon the people of to-morrow, or of the next generation. It means that the voters of 1886 cannot legislate for the unwilling voters of 1890. It means that free men have the inalienable right to make the laws for themselves, to watch their effect and operation, and to amend or repeal them at their sovereign will and pleasure. Thus construed the resolution truly does "embody the priceless principles of self-government," nor is it susceptible of any other possible construction without reflecting upon the intelligence of the men who wrote and passed it. It is the embodiment moreover of fair play and of equal justice. It is indeed the essence of civil liberty and is emblazoned on every fold of the banner which the democracy some weeks since placed in the hands of Richard Warren. Once more we cry hail and welcome to the new recruits! Their excellence of quality must be allowed to compensate their scantiness of quantity.

Let no one ask how all this is to be reconciled with the fact that the prohibitionists have a candidate in the field. The difficulty is only apparent. The nomination of Elder Montgomery was merely a bit of grave pleasantry on the part of the convention. He himself told in his speech of acceptance, with something akin to pathos, how they had all been engaged in studying the Kentucky constitution. They knew therefore that this instrument declared that "no person while he continues to exercise the functions of a clergyman, priest or teacher of any religious persuasion, society or sect" should be eligible to a seat in the legislature. They doubtless also knew that this constitutional inhibition was intended as a decree of absolute divorce between Church and State and that its purpose was to preserve us from the wreck of civil and religious liberty which would certainly follow if we had arrayed each against the other in the Commonwealth, a Presbyterian political party, and Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Catholic political parties. Knowing all this, what else but a piece of solemn wagery could have been intended by these learned students of constitutional history when they tendered this nomination to one who not only had been called and commissioned by the Almighty to exercise the functions of a clergyman, but in fact does so regularly, unremittently and well. In confirmation of this theory, it may be mentioned that several spectators at the convention thought they observed a faint wink in the off-eye of the admirable parliamentarian, who had elected himself chairman of the convention, when he arose in his place to put the nomination to a vote.

While some of the editors of the State were accepting the courtesies of the L. & N. Railroad last week their papers were knitting that corporation to the gizzard without just provocation.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian. This is, alas! too true and the most unreasonable of those who needlessly fight the corporation wanted a greater number of passes than anybody. They may look at things differently from what we do, but for one we would as soon accept a favor from a personal enemy as a corporation at which we were at enmity. Railroad companies are no better, neither do they deserve any more consideration than anything or anybody else, and they should be held to a strict accountability for their acts, but there is a big difference between abuse and legitimate criticism, a point that some of our contemporaries seem to forget. The companies are usually composed of gentlemen, who do not become outlaws simply because they are so associated. Criticize the railroads, gentlemen, if you please, when they deserve it, but be above a factious and petty spite in doing so. Do not imagine it is brave to abuse a corporation when you wouldn't dare to tackle the gentlemen who compose it individually, or to think that it makes your paper more popular to do so. It may do it with the thoughtless, but the average American believes in fair play, whether individuals or corporations are concerned.

In his own good time President Harrison has appointed the Kentucky collectors and in the appointments he has shown great wisdom, as all of the men, while being thorough republicans, are gentlemen of high standing and social worth. In the Second District, John Feland, of Hopkinsville, as pure a man as is in his party, succeeds his law partner, Hunter Wood; Albert Scott is appointed in the Louisville district, J. J. Landrum in the Covington and A. R. Burnam in this district. The latter, who was endorsed by Gov. McCreary, and therefore a good selection, is eminently a gentleman and a thorough going business man. He lives in Richmond and the collector's office will consequently remain there. If all of the president's appointments are as good as these, the country will be safer than we imagined it could be under republican rule.

The prohibitionists have thrown down the gauntlet and defied both democrats and republicans. We are therefore left with no alternative but to fight them as any other opposing party. We regret this as our sympathy is always with those who honestly believe they are trying to improve the condition of mankind, but the die has been cast and for one we shall meet the issue.

BILL CHANDLER has been nominated for the Senate by the republican legislature of his State, which is equivalent to an election. He is said to have paid as high as $1,500 for votes and that with the fact that "Slave-Driver" Joe Blackburn pulled his dirty aricular, will send him back to the capital, which he disgraces by his very presence.

SMALLS, the negro ex-Congressman from South Carolina, has been made collector of the port of Beaufort, in that State. He is a sweet-scented shrub, treacherous as an Indian and as roguish, if reports be true, as the worst of his race. But these little things do not count in the g. o. p., many of whose members are paddling in the same kind of a boat.

Our good friend, Mr. Walter P. Emerson, has succeeded to the city editorship of the Louisville Times, while Mr. T. G. Watkins will run the Tatler department exclusively. Both are capital all-around newspaper men, capable of holding down any department.

The most pleasing and praise-worthy feature of our annual press association meetings is that they bring the editors into closer fellowship and make them forgive and forget former disagreements and other unpleasant relations. We were ourselves delighted to shake the hands of several members, who imagined that there was animosity between us and to renew a number of friendships that had become at least strained from various and sundry questions ever arising in the profession for discussion. But the most gratifying result appears in the case of the two Owensboro papers. For a long time Bros. Woodson and Ford, albeit they are brothers-in-law, have not dwelt in that unity commended as so good and beautiful in Holy Writ, and it gave their friends considerable concern. Like the chivalrous knight that he is Bro. Ford of the Inquirer extends the olive branch in a handsome and deserved compliment to the enterprise displayed by the Messenger in its pictorial report of the meeting and Bro. Woodson, with equal magnanimity, acknowledges and goes him one further. We are sincerely glad of this much desired outcome. They are both too good and too clever gentlemen to live at enmity and we hope that hereafter neither will give cause of offense to the other.

EDITOR LEWIS, of the Somerset Republican, thinks that the city fellows dominate the press association too much and demands that the rural roosters be given a show. To this end he nominates the editor of this paper for president, forgetting that we have just been honored by a unanimous re-election as secretary. We highly appreciate the compliment intended, but we have no aspirations for an office that requires a certain amount of "gift of gab," in which we are woefully deficient. Thanks, all the same, old fellow.

BRO. H. E. THOMPSON, of the Paducah News comes gallantly to our defense in the Boyd-criminal libel suit and says things that would make each and every hair stand on the judge's head like quills on a fretful porcupine if he could see them. But we will show our magnanimity by not reproducing them and the other severe things that are being said about the judge in connection with the indictment.

If the Kentucky collectors had followed Gen. Robinson's plan and withheld their resignations, the republicans would still be hallooing for pie. There has been no appointment in the Lexington district, which ought to go to young Blaine, the republican whom Robinson has kept in office during his entire term as chief deputy. He could then be in position to repay his benefactor.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—Georgia furnished three legal neck breakings Friday.

—Lu-Chow, China, is reported burned, with a loss of 10,000 lives by fire and tramping.

—A two-headed green viper, three feet long, was killed by a farmer in Braden county last week.

—Squire James Malone fell dead in Judge Field's court at Louisville immediately after testifying.

—Near Bosier, Mo., two boys, aged respectively 11 and 12 years, were killed and eaten by wolves.

—Public Printer Palmer says he is going to give the grand bounce to 500 democratic printers this week.

—The employees of Carnegie's mills at Pittsburgh have rejected his terms. The Amalgamated association will back them.

—There is a rumor from Chicago that a consolidated coal trust company is to be formed with a capital of $500,000.

—Eld. Martin Owens writes that he is still alive and will preach at Mt. Moriah church, Highland, on the 5th Saturday and Sunday.

—Burl Jones, a Somerset negro, attempted to rape Miss Rogers, a respectable girl, but was thwarted by her screams and captured.

—J. B. Hill, of California, lived nearly two weeks after having his neck broken, the most remarkable case of the kind on record.

—Friday was the anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the National banner, which has been waving to the breeze 112 years.

—Near Austin, Tex., a man refused to be tried before a colored justice. The result was a row, in which 9 persons were killed and a number wounded.

—Frank James attempted to blow up the home of his lady love with dynamite when she refused to listen to his suit and when placed in jail he committed suicide.

—The passenger business of the Chesapeake & Ohio road is so heavy that, to secure a berth on their best trains, one must make application two or three days ahead.

—New York and Brooklyn have raised for the Johnstown sufferers $350,000, Pittsburgh has subscribed $300,000, Philadelphia $600,000, Boston $150,000 and Chicago $75,000.

—Two hundred merchants have signified their intention to at once resume business at Johnstown and Philadelphia and Pittsburgh wholesalers have offered them full stocks of goods on long time.

—The Pennsylvania railroad is the largest single contributor to the Johnstown sufferers, although it lost $13,000,000. It gave $35,000 and the Cambria Iron Co., also a heavy loser, gave $25,000.

—Louisville bonds for street improvements to the amount of $1,500,000 were sold Saturday at a premium of over $40,000 and taken in blocks of $500,000 by the Fidelity Trust and Safe Vault Company of Louisville; Drexel, Morgan & Co., of New York, and Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia.

—Four murderers, two in Indiana and two in Tennessee, got their deserts at the end of ropes tied by infuriated citizens one day last week. The first two killed a farmer and his daughter for the purpose of robbery, the latter killed a preacher's wife and son and then burned the house to conceal their crimes of robbery and murder.

—The bodies buried in the old Presbyterian church yard, Lexington, are being removed, several thousand in number, and many are found in the most remarkable state of preservation though they have been beneath the sod more than a quarter of a century. In the case of a beautiful young girl the form still retains all of its naturalness and beauty, clad in a white silk bridal costume.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Good saddle horse for sale. A. W. Carpenter, Milledgeville.

—F. L. Sandidge sold to a Bourbon county party a combined mare for $225.

—Henderson Baugh has bought round Highland a bunch of yearling heifers at $12 to $13.

—The 19 cr-ameries in New Hampshire produced in 1888 about 1,250,000 pounds of butter.

—Wood & Fox bought in this and Lincoln counties 180 hogs, from 175 to 200 lbs., at 3½ cts.—Advocate.

—Wanted at once, a lot of cattle on 70 acres of first-class grass. Good water and shade. Stephen Burch.

—Dick Gentry, of Boyle, sold to an eastern party a combined gelding by J. Steele Carpenter's Wallace Denmark, for $400.

—M. F. Elkin bought 8 2-year-old heifers of W. M. Lackey at 2½ cents and of other parties a number at the same price.

—Forestus Reid sold to Eugene W. Lee, of Boyle, 50 head of New York cattle at 4½, to be delivered from July 10 to August 10, as Mr. Lee desires.

—For Sale, privately, my farm of 150 acres, just north of McKinney Station. Address or call on A. C. Dunn, at McKinney or B. Vanarsdale, at Stanford.

—The Kirksville Fair will be held July 26-27. Waller Bennett is president; James B. Walker, secretary and J. H. Embry assistant. Wolf & Trost's band will furnish the music.

—Santa Cruz, sold sometime since by Hon. G. A. Lackey, won a race and came out second in another at Chicago last week. By the terms of the sale Mr. Lackey gets the first purse won.

—J. W. Alcorn has sold his Chilhowie farm near the Boyle line, 119 acres, to Thomas McRoberts, of Danville, at $37 and 70 to Dr. Hann at $21.50. He had previously sold 85 acres at $35 to Mr. Alexander.

—J. Steele Carpenter of the West End writes: "Please withdraw my 'ad.' Have done a big business and have turned away a number of good mares. This shows what a good horse and an advertisement in a good paper does."

—L. M. Lasley has a letter from Col. Clark, of the Louisville Jockey Club, tendering him the use of the Tarlton stables and of the Louisville track free of rent to train on for the fall races. Lasley says the stables are the best on the ground and he will likely train there.

—C. Y. Wilson, commissioner, has had the parasite examined which is showing itself in such large numbers on wheat. The examiner pronounces it the grain louse and says its presence in a growing crop and in large numbers is a rather serious matter, as they increase with fearful rapidity, three and sometimes more broods appearing in one month. No successful mode of extermination is known. The so-called "lady-bugs" and ichneumon flies prey on them and destroy in great numbers.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Hon. James B. Mason is quite sick.

—T. H. McMichael, a civil engineer in the employ of the Chesapeake & Nashville railroad, was here last week looking over the county with a view to bringing a corps of engineers to survey a line for that road.

—Soon after the late fire, which was the third one we have had recently, a party of gentlemen were discussing the origin of fires, one of the party advocating and contending very vehemently for the theory of spontaneous combustion.

A colored friend who was standing near with his head bowed in a meditative manner, at last looked up and said: "Boss, it's mighty strange that this spontaneous combustion always happens about 2 o'clock in the night."

—A little after 2 A. M. Saturday the alarm of fire was sounded again and all Lancaster got out of bed. The fire was in a large frame building almost in the heart of town. It was an immense structure erected some five years ago by Burns Bros., for a tobacco barn, but has been used recently as a sort of general store-house. At the time of burning it contained about 60,000 pounds of hemp (insured for $2,000) valued at $2,700, and belonging to J. M. Layton, Jr. The building which cost about $3,000, was the property of Col. E. Brown, and was insured for $800. This came near being the most disastrous fire that has ever visited our town. A number of houses in the neighborhood and partly surrounding the square were frequently on fire, as well as an occasional house a quarter of a mile distant. By united efforts and untiring work, coupled with the damp condition of everything, the town was saved. There should be an end to the building of fire traps in town, and our city fathers should never allow building of any kind to be erected until a permit is given. We have had a close call, sharp experience and a terrible warning. Shall it go unheeded?

PERSONAL POINTS.

MISS LIZZIE CARTER is visiting in Daviess county.

CAIT. V. M. HILL, of the C. S., has been visiting friends here.

R. C. WARREN was called to Somerset on legal business yesterday.

MR. AND MRS. W. M. O'BRYAN went to Lebanon Saturday to visit relatives.

MRS. S. P. STAGG is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stagg, Sr., in Casey.

MR. JESSE D. WEAREN is back from Central University grown almost into manhood.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN METCALF, of Nicholasville, are with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Metcalf.

MISS NIX AND KITTIE BAUGHMAN are visiting their cousin, Miss Debra Baughman, in Boyle.

MR. WILL OWSELEY was over Friday to meet his sister, Miss Ellen, who has been attending school in Louisville.

MISS EMMA SAUFLEY went to Danville yesterday and will attend the commencement exercises and hop there this week.

MRS. MARY W. BOWMAN with Miss Virginia and Horace arrived from Lexington yesterday and are with Mr. H. S. Withers.

MISS MAGGIE BIRD has returned from Louisville where she went to learn the millinery business. She is now a full graduate of that art.

CLARENCE TATE returned home Friday from the University at Lexington. His schoolmate, Mr. C. L. Howard, of Texas, returned with him and spent a few days.

MISS MARY MYERS is spending a charming vacation with friends in Georgia and orders her old love, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, to be sent to her at Malloryville, that State.

MISS ANNIE ALCOCK left yesterday, for a month's visit to Miss Madie White, at Middleway, W. Va., and to other friends in the Old Dominion, including Richmond.

MRS. R. J. LYLES, of Nashville, was with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Cooper, yesterday, having come as far as Kentucky with her husband, who was en route to New York.

MR. AND MRS. M. SALINGER have rented Misses Lizzie and Mary Beazley's house and will move into it at once. The young ladies expect to spend the summer in Cleveland, O.

JUDGE C. W. METCALF accompanied by Misses Emma Wykes, of Springfield, O., and Nettie Gray, of Augusta, Ky., and Editor George H. Dains, of Barbourville, are the guests of Mr. Tom Metcalf.

MR. M. D. HUGHES, of the Lancaster News, looked in upon us for a few minutes Friday. He says that Capt. White is sticking type at the rate of 11 columns a day, when it is necessary, but we opine it is never found necessary.

In its notes on the Women's Temperance meeting, the Carlisle Mercury says: "Mrs. Trueheart is worthy of her expressive name. She is all business, but does not fail to make her talks interesting by an occasional vein of humor."

MR. W. B. SMITH and wife, Miss Sarah Mullins and Miss Senie Walls, friends of this paper from the South Fork Trestle section, were in to see us Friday. Mrs. Smith tells us that she is soon to fall heir to a handsome estate left by a rich Virginia kinsman.

MR. WILL SEVERANCE and Miss Sue Hardin, J. B. Paxton and Miss Louise Bailey, J. H. Baughman and Miss Lucy Tate and P. M. McRobert took tea with Miss Dollie Williams at Hustonville, Friday. Miss Romaine Braden, who was to accompany Mr. McKR, was kept from going by sickness.

The Somerset Republican pays a high compliment to Miss Ellen Ballou's concert and to the lady herself, of whom it says: "Miss Ballou is an excellent instructor of music, combining patience and a special aptitude for imparting information with a rare skill as a performer on the piano."

MRS. MARY LUMPKIN, Miss Eva Parish and Mr. L. N. Parish, of Owensboro, who are visiting their relative, Mrs. J. B. McKinney, accompanied by Misses Jennie McKinney and Jennie Kennedy, honored our office with a pleasant call Saturday. We hope the visitors will be as well pleased with Stanford and Lincoln as we were with Owensboro and Daviess.

CITY AND VICINITY.

MILLINERY at cost. Courts & Cox.

Wire screens for doors and window at Sine & Meneffee's.

The tax books for 1889 are now ready. Everybody will please come forward and pay his taxes at once. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

Scythes, snaths, cream freezers, water-coolers at T. R. Walton's.

CALL at our store and get binder twine and machine oil. Metcalf & Foster.

We will begin to-day to sell out our entire stock of millinery at cost. Call and get bargains. Courts & Cox.

Lost.—A black silk purse on Crab Orchard pike near Mrs. Helan's place. Finder rewarded; return to this office.

Twine for binders and a number of brand new buggies for sale cheap. Call early and take first choice of the buggies. I. M. Bruce.

FRUIT JARS, Tin Cans, Porcelain Kettles, Jelly Glasses and everything necessary for canning on hand at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

The heaviest of the three-weeks' series of rains fell yesterday, adding to the gravity of the situation so far as crops are concerned, which was already serious.

THE McKee Lodge of Masons at London will give a big barbecue on the 24th, on which occasion H. G. Sandifer and other prominent Masons will deliver addresses.

A HEAVY land-slide near Newcomb, Tenn., necessitated a transfer of passengers and baggage on Saturday morning's express, which did not pass here until nearly noon.

A CRAYON portrait of Wallace E. Varnon, which is on exhibition at Severance & Son's, bears splendid testimony to the skill of his sister, Miss Mary Varnon, who is an accomplished artist.

T. C. BALL has qualified as administrator of his father and will move out to his farm. He has sold out his store at Rowland to Judge Shelton, but will continue to give the people bargains for 10 days yet.

HON. R. C. WARREN, democratic candidate for the legislature, will speak at Hustonville, Saturday, June 22d, at Waynesburg, Friday, June 28th, and at Kingsville, Saturday, June 29th, at 2 o'clock p. m. at each place. Time will be divided with other candidates for the office.

THE trustees of the Stanford Male and Female Seminary met Saturday and complimented Prof. S. J. Pulliam with an election to the principalship although he was not a candidate. There were several applicants, which makes the compliment the more pointed. Prof. A. S. Paxton was not an applicant this time having obtained a school in his native State.

THE "I am holier than thou" party lays particular stress on the assertion that Mr. Warren is the whisky candidate. How much truth there is in this let the records tell. There were 27 of the 30 accredited delegates present at the caucus which decided to nominate Mr. Warren and the poll books show that 19 of them voted for prohibition in 1886, 4 didn't vote and 4 voted against the law.

A majority of the gentlemen will vote for the law again and are not afraid to test its strength at the polls. They have confidence that it will carry again, but if it does not they are democrats and willing always that the majority shall rule.

NEW MARSHAL.—After several adjourned meetings the City Council met Saturday morning and proceeded to the election of a town marshal. G. S. Carpenter, J. B. Owens, O. J. Newland and Tim Mershon were placed in nomination, but before the final vote was taken Mr. Carpenter was withdrawn and Mr. Owens receiving a majority of the votes was declared duly elected marshal. He will present his bond and qualify next Thursday night. Councilman Miller brought up the question of subscribing $3,000 stock in a Waterworks Co., and he and councilman Vandever were appointed to confer with Mr. Wm. Welch and others in regard to the matter and report at a subsequent meeting.

BEFORE deciding finally to nominate a candidate for the legislature the prohibitionists coquetted with Lawyer Davison, chairman of the republican county committee, and told him if he would put up a candidate opposed to the resubmission of the prohibition law they would support him. J. T. O'Hair was with the party that waited on the great man and he gave the snap dead away in his speech Saturday. He says the lawyer told him that it was impossible; that the position adopted by the democrats made it necessary for them to nominate a man on the same platform of resubmission and added: "It would be suicide for us to do otherwise, we could not hold our party together except by accepting that issue and as for the 'niggers' they would leave us like sheep jumping over a fence if we tried to work prohibition on them." This settles the lawyer's hash and we are told that he raved and tore his hair when told that O'Hair had given him away. His position on the prohibition question and his promise to the people of Turnersville on election day two years ago, leaves him out of the question for the candidacy and makes it necessary to nominate somebody whose record is more pleasing to the "niggers" as he terms them. W. R. Dillion, of Crab Orchard, has been spoken of, but he will not, we learn, accept the nomination under any circumstances. Steve Drye, of Hustonville, seems the only man that can now fill the bill and he will in all probability be nominated, if the rads are mainly enough to make an open nomination.

Lost.—A black morocco pocketbook containing $21. Liberal reward will be given for its return, with the money to this office.

GEN. SOWDER, charged with the murder of J. C. King at Pineville and who is in jail here for safe-keeping, was before Judge Varnon yesterday afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus for bail. Mr. D. G. Coison, of Pineville, represented the accused and D. R. Carpenter and W. E. Varnon the commonwealth. Only ex parte evidence was presented and the commonwealth objecting to go into trial without the testimony of the indicting witness, the judge continued the case till next Monday. Mr. Varnon made a very spirited speech against the manner of procedure proposed by the defense and insisted strongly on the rights of the commonwealth.

INSTEAD of being on their good behavior at their annual hop, two youngsters became involved in a disgraceful row at Zimmer's restaurant, where the couples were enjoying a lunch at midnight Thursday. One of them, whose name is withheld at the earnest request of a loving, but humiliated mother, and upon his own promise that this shall be his last as he claims it was his first offence, was taken in charge by Marshal Carpenter and after some disturbance and resistance taken to a room, and behaved himself after wards. The other, young Gabe Lackey, defied the officer and with oaths dared him to arrest him, even after the judge had ordered him to be carried to jail. The streets were full of ladies at the time and instead of the officer doing as he was ordered he permitted the boy to continue the disturbance and to quit only when he got through. Not satisfied with this, Lackey went to the hall and tried to raise a row with a visitor and on being remonstrated with and threatened with ejection, which would have resulted had the proper person been present, he swore and made a feint as if to draw a pistol. To say that he was drinking does not lessen the offense for he should have been on his best behavior in the presence of the ladies and invited guests. It is a matter of deep regret to us ever to speak of the boys except in complimentary terms, for we know that boys will be boys, but in this case we have overlooked so many offenses that the time for silence has ceased. The singular part of the matter is that although the marshal and judge were present there have been no fines entered and no steps taken to punish the offenders. This is a nice state of affairs indeed. The action of the marshal in not quieting the disturbance promptly was the most reprehensible, but as he is soon to retire we will leave unsaid some things that we had intended to say before that fact was known.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Gen. William Temple Withers, a brave officer of the Confederate army and an honored Kentuckian, is dead at Lexington.

—Mr. W. J. Kindrick, an uncle of Mrs. J. W. Alcorn and the richest man in Wayne county, died last week, at an advanced age. He was a member of the Christian Church and a man of sterling integrity.

—Mr. W. P. Tate, who recently lost a brother, is called upon now to mourn the death of a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Carson, of Casey. She was about 50 years of age and a devout member of the Christian church.

MCKINNEY AND HUSTONVILLE.

—Cashier J. W. Hocker complained of dull times, but the merchants as a general thing seemed to be doing good business Saturday.

—The fair question is now being agitated by the Hustonvillians. Stanford will give up freely to them as well as assist them all she can.

—J. S. Goode now has charge of the Commercial Hotel at McKinney and is ready to wait on the traveling public to the best of everything.

—Hustonville has wonderfully improved the appearance of herself by putting a coat of paint on numerous houses there that have needed it for years. Let the good work continue.

—Allen, Fair & Co., with F. M. Ware silent partner, but best man, are doing a staving big business. They carry a $10,000 stock, which includes anything from a darning needle to a set of furniture.

—There is a trade on hand between Mr. M. G. Thompson and Miss Hannah Burgin for Christian College. It is whispered that the building which originally cost $13,000 can now be obtained for $3,000.

—Mr. Charles Bishop, of Hustonville, is very ill with consumption and the chances are that he will not live till this is printed. He is an affable man of good business qualifications and will be generally missed.

—K. L. Tanner & Sons have purchased an immense new boiler, the demand for their flour rendering the old one unequal to the emergency. The Favorite Mills are hard to beat when it comes to making first-class flour.

—Jim Crow showed me his fine stallion, Belmont Chief. He is a splendid fellow and has a most excellent pedigree. His books were full, long before the season was over and it looks to a man up a tree that Jim has a gold mine in him.

—I saw Bro. Bogle at Hustonville, but his Lordship, from an exalted position in an arm chair with legs crossed and a daily in hand, failed to recognize me. He presented a perfect picture of ease and contentment and looked much more at home than he did when managing the "pony express."

—The McKinney people are very much worked up over the prospective road from Stanford to that point. They are ready to make any reasonable inducements and say they intend to have it if there is a ghost of a show. A merchant informed me that real estate had already enhanced in value and that a number of trades had already been made so confident were the people that the road would be built.

—Although around McKinney is what might be called a prohibition stronghold, yet the good democrats there are as unterrified as mortals can be and are already making inroads for their nominee for the legislature. Said a prominent democrat: "Let the rest of the county do as much for the party as we do and Dick Warren will sit in the next assembly with as big a majority as the county has given a candidate for a like office in the last decade."

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Born, to Mrs. Georgia Rice, nee Brown, a son.

—Revs. Walden and Elliott began a revival here Sunday.

—Nate Evans, who used to telegraph at this place, is dispatching trains at Zanesville, O.

—Rain! Will it never stop? Work is at a standstill. The bark shippers of the county will lose up in the thousands.

—Franklin Earl, the four months old child of L. S. Jones, died in Louisville Friday night and was buried here Sunday.

—Mrs. M. Schoal and Mrs. Jack Adams, of Garrard, are here to see Mrs. L. B. Adams, who is much worse. Mr. M. R. Moore is very low.

—Brush Creek was heard from Saturday. One man had a bullet hole put through his hat and another had his vest torn by flying lead.

—At Conway, this county, the boiler of Hart Bros' saw mill exploded, fatally injuring two men and others slightly. The establishment was totally wrecked. The boiler was scattered for a hundred yards in all directions; cause not learned.

—The citizens had another meeting Friday night to discuss the college question. Many who had never taken an interest in the enterprise heretofore were present and gave their assistance and encouragement. Five hundred dollars were subscribed.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Campbellville Baptist church has been sold for $143.50 and the work of erecting a new and handsome building has been begun.

—The Lutherans in their 34th biennial session at Pittsburgh adopted a resolution endorsing prohibition, which is to be voted on in Pennsylvania to-day.

—Next Sunday afternoon has been set apart by Rev. Ben Helm especially for children and exercises interesting to them will occur at the Presbyterian church, to which all the schools are invited.

—Dilger, the policeman murderer, of Louisville, must die. The Court of Appeals refuses his motion for a new hearing.

—Bob Neighbors, a Hardin county Bully, attacked Editor Stovall, of the Elizabethtown Independent, but the smallest member of the Press Association held his own and would have done the coward up with a shot-gun if he hadn't been restrained.

Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in return of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terrebonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy."

For Home Use.

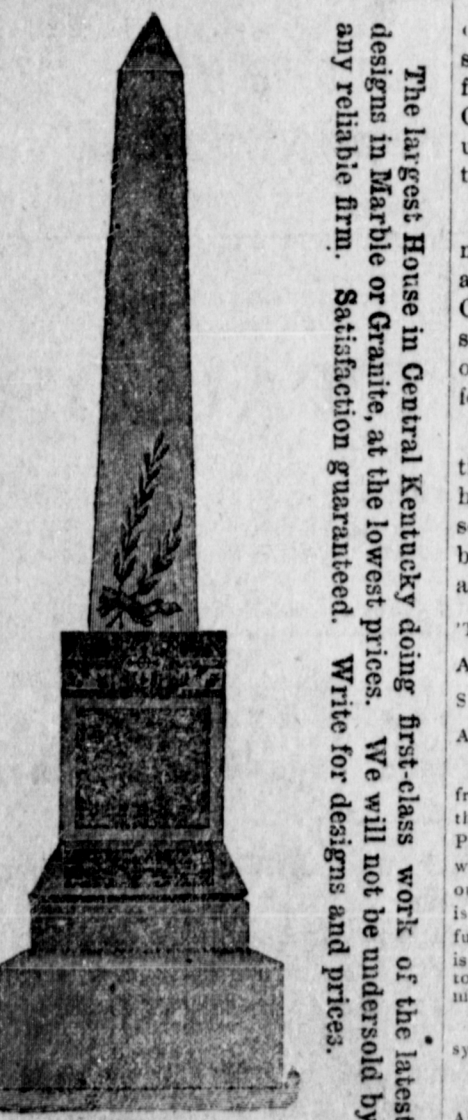

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Elderly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

LEXINGTON, - KY.

A Good Story of Lincoln.

A lawyer is presumed to be able to suggest a difficulty, no matter how self-evident the case may seem; but the truly great lawyer knows how to state a point so that even a brother lawyer cannot start an objection. According to the Yankee Blade, Stephen A. Douglas and Mr. Lovejoy were once gossiping together when Abraham Lincoln came in.

The two men immediately turned their conversation upon the proper length of a man's legs.

"Now," said Lovejoy; "Abe's legs are altogether to long, and yours, Douglas, I think, are a little short. Let's ask Abe what he thinks of it."

The conversation had been carried on with a view to Lincoln's overhearing it, and they closed it by saying:

"Abe, what do you think about it?" Mr. Lincoln had a far away look, as he sat with one leg twisted around the other, but he responded to the question: "Think of what?"

"Well, we are talking of the proper length of a man's legs. We think yours are too long, and Douglas' too short, and we'd like to know what you think is the proper length?"

"Well," said Mr. Lincoln, "that's a matter I had never given any thought to, so, of course, I may be mistaken; but my first impression is that a man's legs ought to be long enough to reach from his body to the ground."—Youth's Companion.

"MOTHER WILL COME NOW."—A peculiar incident occurred in the circuit court at Lexington. Sam Smith, alias William Daly, a negro, was convicted and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The proof showed that he had robbed an Italian of the poor man's little 10-year old boy seemed very much grieved because he could not get to see his mother. His sadness touched the hearts of the 12 jurors who convicted Smith and the 16 jurors who indicted him, so that each member of these two bodies gave $1 towards reimbursing the Italian and the court officers and members of the bar gave $22, thus making up the $50 lost.

When the fact was made known the little boy burst out into joyful tears and between his sobs exclaimed—"Mother will come now!"

Three years ago Mind Reader J. Randall Brown, who was a witness in the late Bishop case, was giving a series of entertainments in the Grand Opera House, San Francisco. On one occasion he gave a seance, and announced that he would produce the spirit of any person called for.

"Diogenes," shouted a man from the back of the house. A few moments later raps were heard, and Prof. Brown announced that the philosopher's spirit was rapping and would answer any question asked. An old gentleman in the front row arose very slowly and said:

"You say you have the spirit of Diogenes there?"

"Yes, sir. Do you wish to ask him any questions, sir?" replied Mr. Brown.

"Only one. Ask him if he has found that honest man yet?"

The laughter which greeted the question broke up the seance for that night.

As a rule the Kentucky editor is a sober man. At Owensboro, where whisky was free and "Johnstown water" the only water to be had for drinking purposes, not more than three or four members of the press association surrounded enough liquor to make them "full," while many of them did not take a drink, not even at the banquet where the finest wines were served.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

The solicitor of the treasury has rendered a decision holding that the professors whom it was intended to bring over from Europe to take charge of the new Catholic University at Washington, come under the law prohibiting the importation of foreign contract labor.

A Chester, Pa., doctor who advised a mother to give her child sage tea for its ailments has been suspended from the County Medical Association for unprofessional conduct. He should have made out a regular prescription and charged for it.

A mixture of ice and salt in proportion of one to one-half, applied to the head frequently, gives instant relief in some cases of acute headache. It should be tied up in a small linen cloth and held as near as possible to the seat of pain.

'Tis sad to see a woman growing old before her time. All broken down and hopeless when life should hold its prime. She feels herself a burden when a blessing she should be. And longs for death to bring her release from misery.

If these poor, discouraged women who suffer from diseases peculiar to women could only know that health could be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription how eagerly they would hasten to avail themselves of it. They ought to know it and try it. Every woman who is still healthy ought to be told about the wonderful virtue in this medicine and understand that it is a safeguard against the terrible diseases common to her sex. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money paid for it will be refunded.

Cleanse the liver, stomach, bowels and whole system by using Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balm in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Begg's Diarrhoea Balm will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

A Far-Sight Machine.

Mr. Edison is reported in a conversation with a reporter who solicited his ideas on the subject of the projected world's fair in New York City, as saying that he would take an acre of space in such a fair and completely cover it with his inventions, of which he has no less than 70 now under way. "One of the most peculiar and now promising good results," said Mr. Edison, is what I may call a far-sight machine." By means of this extraordinary invention he hopes to be able to increase the range of vision by hundreds of miles so that, for instance, "a man in New York could see the features of his friend in Boston with as much ease as he could see a performance on the stage. That," he added, "would be an invention worthy of a prominent place in the world's fair, and I hope to have it perfected long before 1892."

THE PEASANT AND HIS ADVISERS.—A Peasant who had bought him a plot of ground couldn't make up his mind what to sow thereon, and he asked the Advice of the Birds.

"By all means, Sow Wheat," was the reply.

When he asked the Advice of the Animals the reply was:

"Put in Corn and Vegetables," of course.

The insects Advised that he raise seeds of various sort, and the fish recommended that the Land be converted into a Pond. When Autumn came the Field was grown to Weeds Alone and the Peasant was lamenting that he had raised nothing whatever of value. A Sage who was passing by replied:

Moral—"He Who Takes Every man's Advice had better have none at all."—Free Press Tablet.

FRESH BOILED WATER NECESSARY FOR A GOOD CUP OF TEA.—All tea and coffee drinkers can tell by their taste if the water from which the beverage is made has not boiled or has boiled too much. Either of these conditions will spoil the flavor of the costliest tea or the best coffee berry. But not every one knows the reason or how to avoid the result.

The secret is in putting good fresh water into a clean kettle already warm and setting it to boil quickly, then taking it right off to use in tea, coffee and other drinks before it is spoiled. If the water is allowed to steam and simmer and evaporate till all the good of the water is in the air, and the lime and iron and dregs left in the kettle, you must not expect a well flavored cup of tea or coffee.

One of the most picturesque and remarkable bodies of water in the world is Henry's Lake in Idaho. It is situated on the dome of the continent in a depression in the Rocky Mountains called Targers Pass. It has an area of forty square miles, and all around it lies snow capped peaks, some of them being the highest of the continent's back bone. In the lake is a floating island about 300 feet in diameter. It has for its basis a mat of roots so dense that it supports large trees and a heavy growth underbrush. These roots are covered with several feet of rich soil. The surface is solid enough to support the weight of a horse anywhere, and there are places where a house could be built. The wind blows the island about the lake, and it seldom remains twenty-four hours in the same place.

Burls, used in making veneers with remarkable eccentricities of grain, are excrecences that grow upon various trees, such as the walnut, rosewood, mahogany, oak and ash. They weigh from 1,000 to 6,000 pounds and the largest and best come from Persia and Ceylon and cost in the rough from 15 to 40 cents a pound.

If you want to spite your neighbor, steal his chickens; if you want to do him an act of kindness, tell him Gault's chicken cholera cure will certainly cure them of cholera and that it is sold and warranted by McRoberts & Stagg. 2t

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town. I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from pain and soreness and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth and removed completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, 50c and $1, at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the first medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Why Is It

That people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling? One bottle of Begg's Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be Abundant and Glossy, but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, Ohio.

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and in a few days I had a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmitt, Dickinson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill.
